DETAILED ACTION

Claim 1 is pending.

Specification

The first line of specification needs to be amended to indicate that the application 10/145,601 is now a US patent 6,683,085.

Information Disclosure Statement

References cited in the Information Disclosure Statement filed on 3/29/2003, are made of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

1. Recitation of "analog" in claim 1 renders this claim indefinite, as it is not clear what else is embraced. It is not clear what is the metes and bounds of the claim. Note structural variation intended to should be clearly defined for one trained in the art to know the scope of the claim. As recited, the term "analog" could any compound with or with variation in the core and side chain(s).
2. The definition of X_1 , X_2 , and X_3 as N, renders the claim indefinite as it is not clear what is appended to the third valence of the nitrogen atom.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 1 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,387,914. This is a double patenting rejection.
